DETAILS

Employment

On October 31, 1982, Mr. CHARLES MOORE, President and Chief Executive, Clevepak Corporation, White Plains, New York stated that he has known applicant on a professional basis since August, 1981. He stated that applicant owns 40 percent of the stock of the Clevepak Corporation and is currently Chairman of the Board of Directors of Clevepak. He stated that he generally meets with applicant 2 or 3 times a month to discuss various problems with the business. He stated that applicant does not come to White Plains but holds the meetings in New York because of its central location. He stated that he has found applicant to be very decisive good thinker, creative, honest, flexible, easy to converse with and trustworthy. He stated that to the best of his knowledge applicant does not use drugs or abuse alcohol. He stated that he would highly recommend applicant for a responsible position with the United States Government.

BRONFMAN's estate on Route 100, Yorktown Heights, New York. ANDERSON subsequently became the superintendent of BRONFMAN's estate between January, 1979 to October, 1979. ANDERSON lived on the estate at the time and performed numerous odd jobs for Mr. BRONFMAN in addition to that of Estate Superintendent. When the property was sold to the Angolan Government October, 1979, ANDERSON remained as caretaker and is employed there presently. ANDERSON described BRONFMAN as personable, sociable, even tempered, soft spoken and easy-going. ANDERSON was unable to recall any incident's which would prove to be embarrassing to BRONFMAN, his family or the United States Government. ANDERSON never observed any sign of drug usage on the part of BRONFMAN or any of his family. ANDERSON stated to the best of his knowledge applicant does not use drugs or abuse alcohol. ANDERSON would recommend BRONFMAN to any position of trust and confidence within the United States Government.

On October 29, 1982, CLAIRE NELSON, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] New York advised that she has known EDGAR BRONFMAN and his family for 30 years. NELSON stated that she was a house keeper for the family and knows the family well. NELSON first met EDGAR BRONFMAN in May of 1952. NELSON described BRONFMAN of exemplary character and extremely high moral conduct. NELSON recommends BRONFMAN for any position within the United States Government. During the thirty years NELSON has known the BRONFMAN family she has never known BRONFMAN or the family to use drugs or excessive alcohol abuse. NELSON advised that the only incident which could prove embarrassing to the BRONFMAN family was the divorce of EDGAR BRONFMAN which was a bit of a disappointment.

b7C

The nearest neighbor to the BRONFMAN estate was the estate of ex-governor of New York AVERILL HARRIMAN who is currently residing in Washington until summer.

No further neighborhood investigation was conducted, due to the fact that this area is largely estate-type residences.

On October 28, 1982, Police Officer TIMOTHY STRANG advised that the Bronfman Estate, consisting of approximately 200 acres was sold to the Angolan Mission to the United Nations in October 1979. He stated that the only neighbor would be the estate of ex-governor of New York AVERILL HARRIMAN and he is very seldom there.

Miscellaneous

On November 10, 1982, Mrs. ANN BRONFMAN, [REDACTED] New York stated that she was separated from applicant in 1972 and divorced in 1973. She stated that the reason for the divorce was incompatibility. She stated that she and applicant are now good friends. She stated that she is unaware of anything hearsay or otherwise, that might prove to be embarrassing to applicant, his family or the United States Government. She stated that applicant does not use drugs or abuse alcohol. She stated that she would recommend applicant for a responsible position with the United States Government.

Applicant was referenced in Miami file 183-277-72, 8/77 wherein an article was found entitled, "The Frank Fitzsimmons Invitational Golf Tournament, A Portrait of the Continuing Alliance Between Organized Crime, Business and Politics," from "Overdrive" magazine, April 1975. The article stated a member of the Bronfman family had married and divorced Tony Roma, a known organized crime associate. Edgar Bronfman and his family were reported to control the multibillion dollar worldwide Seagram's Whiskey conglomerate. Bronfman's association with an organized crime figure has not been substantiated.

[REDACTED]AT SARATOGA, CALIFORNIA

On November 4, 1982, Hubert J. McPherson, Chairman of the Executive Committee, Clevepak Corporation, 14701 Bougainvillea, Saratoga, verified that Applicant is presently the Chairman of the Board for Clevepak Corporation and has been in that position for approximately the past four to five years. He indicated that he met Applicant around 1957 through business contacts. He added that in 1963, he and Applicant formed Clevepak Corporation and have been close friends ever since. McPherson indicated that Applicant is a bright, intelligent person who handles himself well. In McPherson's opinion, Applicant is highly respected in his community and is active in the Jewish Community affairs. McPherson further described Applicant as being very ethical and as being a good candidate for any position with the United States government. McPherson further stated that there is no reason whatsoever to question Applicant's level of associates or his loyalty to the United States. He highly recommended Applicant for a position of trust and confidence with the Federal

Attention: Director, Division of Safeguards and Security

From: Assistant Director, Criminal Investigative Division

EDGAR MILES BRONFMAN TN 72937
DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY - APPLICANT

Appropriate sources in Canada advised as follows:

National subversive indices not adverse and criminal records negative on Mr. Bronfman and his relatives.

The Bronfman family is prominent in Canada and own Seagrams Ltd., probably the world's largest distillery. Mr. Edgar Bronfman is the company chairman, succeeding his father Samuel Bronfman at the latter's death in 1971.

The Bronfman family, including the applicant, have been prominent for years in their support of Israel and the World Jewish Congress.

Since applicant's employment is well known and documented here, no field inquiry has been conducted in this regard.
